

Soldier Hollow Ski Bunnies

1-18-01

Wave photo by Courtney Gressmen

Cross-country skiers of all ages took advantage of Saturday's special rates at Soldier Hollow.

Letter

From The Wave's

ht side
emma.
ng the
lining,
ness of
Farrell
Heber,
s, have
independ-
when a
ed the
nd we
is and
weeks.
ow we
em as

ing in our available power interests. Plans are underway to bring power on line from Jordanelle and for adding more generators to our power plants.

The Wave applauds the good planning of our city officials who are working to insure our power supplies. HL&P is responsible for helping us to avoid the fate of those poor souls in California who may soon be freezing in the dark.

Although we may not like the prospect of higher power rates we can be thankful that we at least have power to buy.

Others will not be so lucky!

rms

Schmethics

ple who wanted something from the government, in violation of House rules.

And they include intentionally sloppy accounting of campaign expenditures, giving the appearance that the expenditures "may or may not have been attributable to bona fide campaign or political purposes."

The ethics committee did not make any wider points about the impropriety of exploiting public legislation for purposes of personal political gain, maybe because they would then have been obliged to send the same letter to some 400 other members of Congress as well. But they did charge Schuster with using office staff to perform campaign duties, yet another taxpayer-subsidized campaign perk that is hardly exclusive to the office

Overlay Zone

Editors Note: This letter was directed to the Wasatch County Commissioners and reprinted here at the author's request.

TO: Wasatch County Planning Office
RE: Reference to 16.03.170 Landslide Overlay Zone.

I feel you are making progress but your proposal still needs some refinement.

I refer to the section which releases Wasatch County, its elected and appointed boards, officers, agents and employees from any and all liability, loss, damages, costs, or expenses (including attorneys' fees) arising from or as a result of the death of any person, or any accident, injury, loss or damage to any person or property caused by landslide activity.

We are talking about a pretty serious proposal.

I feel the first thing we must do is realize we still live in the United States of America. We have the United States Constitution which so many have fought and died for. Are we willing to give up some of these freedoms?

I have worked in law enforcement for over 35 years and I know that everyone is entitled to due process of

went
always
in the
our fo

We
weather
ing al
it free

Such
swerv
rolled

I s
out f
heavy
no w
rock,

Lu
oncon
have
we co
pretty
there
steep
barrie
stretch

We
other
and se
indeed
dent i

The
it was
We
could
pulled